Prenatal tests and scanning

The Portland Hospital's Obstetric Ultrasound and Fetal Medicine department offers specialised tests, scans and blood sampling that your maternity care team may recommend. Neonatal care

"If you are a self-pay patient, we will cover the first three nights of NICU for unexpected admissions. Please note, as your baby's care steps down from needing NICU, charges will apply. Our Admissions team will advise of applicable charges. For readmissions, charges will apply. If you have private medical insurance and your baby is admitted to the NICU, we will contact your insurer to confirm this can be covered. Once this has been confirmed, we will invoice your insurer for your baby's care.

Antenatal and postnatal care

For patients who receive antenatal or postnatal care at The Portland Hospital, which falls outside of the self-pay maternity package, charges will apply. Our self-pay team will provide a quote based on the treatment required.

Insured patients

If you have private medical insurance, please notify us by calling 0207 390 6068, prior to your first booking appointment, so we can discuss and advise on our billing procedure. To enable direct billing, please provide our patient access team with your insurance details and a letter from your insurer confirming cover.

Package prices and loyalty discounts do not apply and an itemised invoice will be issued. You are required to obtain appropriate authorisation from your insurance provider.

Please liaise with your insurance company prior to delivery to verify your newborn baby's post-delivery care on your policy. Please note that insurers only cover a standard room - upgraded rooms are on a self-pay supplement basis.

WELCOME

Welcome to The Portland Hospital, the UK's only private hospital solely dedicated to the care of women and children. Your pregnancy and the birth of your child is an incredibly precious time and we're delighted you've chosen to have your baby with us.

At The Portland Hospital we pride ourselves on fully supporting our maternity patients. This includes providing information and content that will help guide you through your pregnancy and later years with your baby.

Essential Parent: a wealth of information

Your birth is a magical event, but the journey doesn't stop there. We are fully dedicated to supporting our maternity patients not just for your pregnancy and birth, but all the way through to your child's teenage years.

To support our mission, we have partnered with Essential Parent, an App containing a wide range of expert-led, evidence-based written and video content. The content starts with advice on getting pregnant and continues up until your child is 19 years old.

Each Essential Parent article and video is produced by a team formerly of the BBC Science department, and is guided by relevant medical experts in that subject.

- All breastfeeding and infant nutrition content has been produced with support from UNICEF UK Baby Friendly Initiative
- The infant first aid course is presented by the St John Ambulance
- Advice on pregnancy during the Covid pandemic is brought to you by the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists
- Content on baby fevers was originally developed in association with paediatric members of the Royal College of Paediatrics and Child Health
- Information on looking after your child's teeth comes from the British Society of Paediatric Dentistry
- Individual consultants such as world-renowned Portland specialist consultant and gynaecologist Miss Claire Mellon have also partnered with the Essential Parent team to oversee the production of many of their articles

Essential Parent podcasts will also be available soon. All of this support comes to you as part of your Portland package, by way of the elegant and easy to use Portland App.

To access your Portland App, please click here:

Once you enter your baby's due date or birth date, the app will send you content that will support you every step of the way.
